Often asked questions:

- Does my child have to live/be a resident of Eagle Lake if they go to the Elementary School here?
 - Yes, they have to be an Eagle Lake resident, being enrolled in the Eagle Lake Elementary School does not qualify them for the pageant.
- Does my child need to be enrolled at Eagle Lake Elementary School to participate?
 - No, they do not need to attend Eagle Lake Elementary School to participate. They must meet the grade requirements and be an Eagle Lake resident.
- Can my child participate again if they have done so in the past?
 - Yes, they can re-enter the Littles Pageant each year until they either age out or are crowned.
- What if my child lives in more than one household?
 - As long as one legal parent/guardian is a resident of Eagle Lake there are no restrictions. A close, non-legal relative does not qualify as the child's household.
